President's Message

Passion To Serve

I have spoken several times this year about finding your passion to serve the community. Last Saturday morning, thanks to Mickey Deaton, I was able to meet a passionate group of volunteers who had worked tirelessly to turn the Foster Care Foundation into a prom dress shop. You never know when volunteering for something will spark your passion. We have plenty of opportunities to get involved so please volunteer for Relays, Laws of Life or Read Across America. If you can't volunteer then attend Hearts for Honduras or the Be THE Voice Toga Party. You might just spark a new passion to serve.

This Week's Speaker

Morris Cowan - United Way

Morris Cowan is a member of the Alpharetta Rotary Club and friends with many members of our club. Morris attempted to retire in 2010 but the call to serve others brought him back to work with the likes of the Atlanta Mission and Salvation Army. For the last 8 years Morris has focused exclusively on the United Way as the Engagement Director for North Fulton County.

Women In Rotary Event

We look forward to seeing you at our next Women in Rotary social. As always, please bring friends, neighbors, clients or co-workers who are either involved with or have an interest in Rotary. We want to meet them! We welcome your donations to North Fulton Community Charities (disposable feminine-care products) or Blessings in a Backpack (individually wrapped non-perishable food items for elementary school students in need of a weekend meal). There will be a collections box at sign-in. We hope to see you there!
