Entrepreneur, Real Estate Investor, Non-Profit Founder, Celia Cortes to Speak

Celia Cortes wears many hats, but has committed herself to teaching individuals and organizations that self-reliance is the key to success. She is known for her direct "Don't sit around and wait for someone else" approach to life and business. Celia believes that we each have a warrior within us, and are capable of taking care of ourselves in unexpected situations. She tours the country speaking about the importance of self-reliance in relation to our personal security, financial future, and community safety.

After Hours Meeting Recap

Last week, After Hours welcomed Tim McFarlin, Georgia Tech Football's director of high school relations. The club loved hearing his "7 Keys for Personal Development" which served as great inspiration for both personal and work life. He also shared fun anecdotes and stories about the Tech football team which all sports fans enjoyed. Go Jackets!

The next RRAH meeting will be Tuesday, February 20th. Note that there is a location change: the meeting will be held at the Gate City Back House.
